Broken US Medical System

Grab your goodies hold on here we go. America's medical system is more broken than the people it claims to help. I live in great pain, those of you who follow me know why. Nobody in medicine helps with that; as you know the bastards keep us in pain so that we are in their offices paying the bills as cash cow patients - $$$$$. Constant pain drives people to suicide, I tell ya. I fired VA, the first civilian MD and the medical system that was little above VA except that it cost me more to find that out. So, I visited another medical system that even sent me an invitation to do so. A much bigger system than the previous one. I had high hopes like an ant looking at a fresh, new rubber tree.

VA is the largest medical system in USA. Consequently, it is the biggest FUBAR to go with that distinction. VA is the worst medical system in America. It is socialist, any questions? Okay, when I visit an MD, I make it crystal, clear that I am in pain and suicidal because of it. I write it down, say it many times, and if allowed show the practitioner why do so! The first civilian doctor did not allow me to get that far. She lives in denial. Very bad on anyone's ass when doctors live in a fantasy world. That is why VA removes a guys nuts while the surgeon thinks he is removing a skin wart from the patient's face. Soprano FUBAR at higher pitch.

Alright, I am in the new MD's office. All seems to go okay except for a couple of 'on the rag' receptionists. I made it clear straightaway, look honey, this is not the VA; I can get rude bitch-shit there, which is why I fired it and previous clinic to come here. I am paying you to be nice and to help me. You advertised that. If I complain it will not be to your patient advocate with a broom and large rug under which she hides all the problems. It will be to this company's BOD –Board Of Directors. If you do not understand corporate structures look them up. Hint: they hire and fire entire hospitals over lunch. I will use your name as lipstick when complaining. She settles down into a silent bitch-shit glare.

Strike #1.

The MD takes one look and stifles a scream as I tell her this is what real Bioweapons do to the human body, with or without hand cleaner and mask or no mask. That was an eye opener for her. And will be a real screamer for the rest of America that thinks 911 and Covid are the worst things that can happen to them after the real one arrives. Wake up and smell Dioxin, Napalm, and the shit that nightmare are made of on a good day. All over this shit on my body is written SUICIDE & PAIN. So Ms. MD gives me a referral to a Rheumatologist, which for a change is in the ballpark of the problem that is inside of me not located in a paint and body shop on Uranus. What I mean by that is skin doctors want to apply a fresh coat of paint masking a serious problem beneath it, instead of digging under the paint to treat underlying problems causing my skin to fall off my body.

I get a phone call that begins the first Jamaican, administrative, cluster fuck going round and round going nowhere; except fixing “where did you come up with that information; delete it” and more. Electronic medical record systems are FUBAR with that shit! Finally I get the standard blow off that we will get back to you. DEAD END.

So back to the PC clinic. I call introduce me and explain my problem to the receptionist we will call Ms. On the Rag having a bad hair day or Rag for short. I am in pain and desperate in trying to get hold of someone for help. She goes off on me that I am dumping my frustrations on her. Okay, no more Mr. Nice guy. I said, ‘stop the wedding.’

Then I said calmly as possible, ‘Lady, I AM SUICIDAL FROM THIS PAIN. I TOLD THE DR. AND EVERYONE ELSE WHEN IN THAT CLINIC AND INCLUDED THAT ON MY APP ON MY FIRST VISIT, THE MD SAW THE REASON AND WAS NOT HAPPY AT WHAT SHE SAW OR WHY. I AM TRYING TO STAY ALIVE. I NEED HELP, I BEGGED FOR IT YOU CLAIMED TO DO THAT. WHAT YOU ARE HEARING IS A DESPERATE PERSON BEGGING FOR HELP TO STAY ALIVE INSTEAD OF KILLING SELF, WHICH MEANS DEAD, THE MORGUE, A GRAVE YARD. DEAD IS WITHOUT SUFFERING FOREVERMORE UNLESS YOU CAN HELP ME WITH THIS PAIN. WHAT YOU ARE HEARING IS DESPERATION NOT FRUSTRATION OR DUMPING. THIS IS A CRY FOR HELP, REAL HELP FROM A HUMAN BEING ABOUT TO END HIS LIFE FOREVER UNLESS HE GETS IT. YOUR OFFICE SENT AN INVITATION USPS MAIL THAT YOU COULD HELP ME. I CAME BECAUSE OF THAT. PLEASE HELP ME.’

All she said was, “I am only the receptionist but thank you for explaining that to me.’ Yes, Ma’am. It is not your fault. I understand that in school you are not prepared for real life. Your job did not prepare you for real life. Your employer hired then tossed you unarmed into the lion pit. Only real life and death prepare you for real life and death; you are dealing with that right now.

After that, she cooperated fully and gave me some more phone numbers for the Jamaican circle jerk round two now in progress. Administration and bureaucracy are killing medicine and everything else not already dead in this country.

THAT IS SOCIALISM.

There is the epitome of all my rants about American Broken People not being mature enough to handle real life. She has not progressed beyond 4 years old, still handles adult life as would a child. This woman knew mechanics of her job; outside of them fantasy envelope she broke down. Her reaction is first indication of she hitting the wall a reality she cannot deal with. Fortunately I recognize that to help her understand instead of going glandular in kind as would most emotionally immature people. None is personal. The reaction is a defense mechanism to hide or hide from what frightens the child. The fact that she thanked me for explaining that to her means my message got through that would after she digests it will help her in the future. A person never unhears, unsees, or unlearns anything.

Nothing records, stores and plays back a life more accurately than a human mind, body, and soul.

I hope that clinic recorded the interaction and uses it to train employees so that they realize desperation from dumping and frustration. Yes, they are close to the same except when people vent they get over it. To a hopeless, suicidal person, often that final straw causes s/he to snap and end their lives. Any of you who have been through depression, not just a blue day, but days or weeks or months of deep darkness that MHC quacks remain clueless about to understand know what I just wrote concerning despondency, and hopelessness. Those can bite anyone's ass at anytime in life and never let go. The person lies down and waits to die.... The native Americans have a saying for those stricken by this, 'today is a good one to die' as s/he leaves the tribe never to return alive. In Norse Mead House days they were 'cinder biters' in their Time of Ashes. The tribe knew what that meant. They lie by the center fires, ate cinders and often never got up again alive. This darkness is old as humanity as part of the human frailty and human condition.

Suicide is not cowardly; cowardly is when a country, its people, and their institutions FAIL so faultily and they abuse someone so badly s/he chooses to end their life to stop the pain - that is cowardly. Suicide is not easy or painless, and least of all NOT COWARDLY! It takes a lot of suffering & dying to kill a man. This is not Hollywood cinema or make believe; it is real life 101 cut to a TRAGIC ending.

Normally a person seeking help of this kind meets a standard brush off to, 'call 911 or suicide hot line' while people scamper to hide any place where he or she can fit. That is DENIAL aka MAGIC THINK & FANTASY. What can they do? I need help not a talking head that says, cheer up, get over it, everybody has bad days, pray to Jesus and he will fix everything. If he exists, then why is not Jesus living down in this shithole district with the rest of us? Church rumor is that he moved to a better place far away from this hell leaving no forwarding address. That is why the Christian's steal all of his retirement checks and other money from JC's mailbox. They are holding it in safekeeping for him waiting for his return.

Should one be unfortunate enough to call VA's crisis line and get through to a live person, I think they are alive, the crisis line employee & fool calls the cops claiming that she thinks as in her imagination that she heard 'gun' mentioned and now SWAT shows up at the vet's house like attacking a terrorist cell in Beirut and blows away the troubled veteran. The Ooops is reported as another terrorist kill instead of another dead veteran who tried to get help from Broken People VA in a Broken America. At least the vet is not in pain anymore. And now VA can use his veteran ID billing GAO for medical services to Veteran Casper the Ghost.

It has been my experience that when something begins this badly to STOP, regroup and take another picture. The only place this can go from here is further into the gurgler aka shithole. I could have stayed at the VA for this cobble. Don't give me that lie US medical is the greatest in the world. With enough money anywhere will get one the best of everything. But for we proles who live in the real world that is an opium pipe dream. Never tried the stuff but it might not be a bad idea in giving it a one shot try before taking the final ride out of here with a one shot bullet through the head.

American's who can do so go to Mexico for dental & medical care and their med drugs, not black market drugs but Pharma maintenance drugs to stay alive. All of that is better and cheaper than in US. Mexico has real affordable healthcare!!! Border Control is busting seniors and poor people going there for healthcare and meds that dare escape from their cages to commit blasphemy against US white-coated MD gods and goddesses.

I have paid hundreds of thousands of dollars over my lifetime to these frauds. My life taken dollar by dollar and fed into an American fucked up medical system. However, when I needed real help FUBAR is what it returned. For shit my mom and grandmother fixed at the kitchen table and sink that I used very little in early life, I paid these birds a fortune. Moreover, seems like everyone in this system has a bug's nest up his or her ass.

I don't know, I simply don't know. Nothing works in a vacuum. If I am having these problems so are other people! Many other people!!! US medicine is the most expensive of all the world's developed nations, which US as a developed nation is questionable, but American's receive the least in return for healthcare resources robbed from them. I can prove that!!! Moreover, countries such as N. Korea provide better for its citizens than USA does for her people robbed stupid supporting this mess!!!

Ie. Years ago during Obama's first term, I viewed an intellectual Ted-talk given by a North Korean family who escaped out of Korea through China into Europe seeking political asylum. That was the ah-ha moment to me about America. Her story was a typical political asylum escape except for one feature. *The narrator said, that her N. Korean government tells its people Americans are literally sick and dying outside of medical facilities from lack of healthcare access.

For that and other reasons, her well-educated family chose progressive Europe as their new home instead of seeking political asylum in backwards USA.

LET THAT SINK IN, AMERICA.

Secretary of State Hillary Clinton at the time bawled it all propaganda.... No! It is not! I suffered greatly and nearly died in America for that very reason, Hillary. In seeking help, the US medical and social safety net systems I spent my life supporting rejected me proper because of Obamacare, age discrimination and bad health, without job, healthcare or insurance. Moreover, Hillary, explain the over one million Vets who have suicided in the last 6 decades from not getting the care we need from this country, and what about the hundreds of thousands, perhaps a million or more, of them who died on VA waiting lists within the last decade from not getting help? 300,000 vets died hidden away on secret waiting lists during Obama's last term in office! Recently VA publicly confirmed what it has been denying since 2016 that all of those deaths and more are true. Now it has been my experience with VA that when it comes clean about anything that, that is a red herring away from another hidden crime far, far worse.

North Korea embarrassed the US during Obama's administration for not providing basic, accessible, healthcare to all of its citizens the same way Soviets in the 1960's during the US-Soviet Cold War disgraced JFK and Johnson administrations. Russia told and proved to the world that the US Socialist government allowed its people including babies and kids to literally starve to death. During which the US playing popularity politics destroyed excess food supplies – claiming per party propaganda that doing so propped up sagging farm prices – then the administration distributed much of the excess undestroyed food freely around the world to other countries of starving people while denying that same 'charity' to its starving people here in the 'homeland.' THAT IS US SOCIALISM.

That was true. I was 10 years old and my family lived through that savage socialism era in a rural farming community perpetually in poverty from Socialists, wrongheaded, economic policies. A family over the hill from us lost their youngest baby to starvation before anyone found out that they were in trouble. Pride is the only thing poor people have, and it comes at a price. In this case a dead baby that needlessly died, because of politics, from starvation in America the land of plenty.

The N. Korean government's statement about America is true; America's boasts are pompous ass falsehoods hiding that truth, Hillary, which is the jackboot of US National Socialism. Make America great again? Is that more socialist cobble? Count me out!

American Socialists boast that their system is the greatest. Is it? If so then why are people who can do so escaping from here, denouncing citizenship and moving to other countries like Sweden? Sweden is a country currently recovering on afterburner reouncing Socialism in returning to Capitalism especially their healthcare system. Sweden was once the wealthiest country in the world since god set foot on this rock. Socialism bankrupted it, proper. American's must be dumber than two planks and a box of rocks even thinking that socialism will fix this nation and her problems.

WHAT DO YOU THINK CAUSED THEM?

After over 90 years of socialist lootership, bankrupt America is in deep, serious, trouble. Adding more socialism to fix it is like adding more jet fuel to a crash and burn trying to put out the blaze! That is socialism's fix every time to add more of what created the problem: socialism. Einstein called that, STUPIDITY! The Swedes are screaming out to deaf, dumb, and stupid America the consequences of Socialism. America has dug self into a deep hole! First rule when in a deep hole is THROW DOWN THAT DAMN SHOVEL When Socialism digs into a hole instead of throwing down the shovel; it digs more filling its grave. Go Figure!!!

Q & A time: Why are more immigrants fleeing into Europe instead of to America, except for lowest quality immigrants that come here to advantage socialist benefits! I cannot blame people for advantaging what is free to them but costing taxpaying middle and upper classes the farm paying for other people's benefits and government cost plus markup, who then cannot pay for those same benefits to selves! A double bind of pay for others, pay for government while going without for selves! That is SOCIALIST slavery!!! Why are increasing numbers of US citizens that can afford to so denouncing citizenship and fleeing here? It costs about $20,000 total to denounce US citizenship. Once doing that was free. Ever wonder why? Moreover, why is rampant mass murder endemic in US especially school children killing each other, dying by suicide and drug use self-destruction at its highest level than at any other time in American history - ad infinitum, ad nauseam?! Why does a Communist totalitarian N. Korea provide better care for its people than the USA does for her people? Because life under National Socialism is so great as US socialist, propaganda, boastfully claims? The reasons are that this country is toxic, poisoned and destroyed beyond FUBAR by over 90 years of Socialism lootership.

Below is a story that may help readers understand scope of this country's toxic problems.

I occasionally walk for exercise, sun, and fresh air; it is good for the constitution, and keeps my mind off the pain for a spell. I wander various routes, adjacent to a city park, golf course and a walled community, which have dedicated grounds keepers that maintain these properties; they heavily depend upon chemical fertilizers, weed and insect killers and more doing maintenance. I avoid that area entirely during when they do that because chemical smell is suffocating. Interestingly, after groundskeepers finish I notice the following effects at each location every time. Shortly after application of these poisons, often within hours, the earthworms crawl out of the soil onto sidewalk and similar paved surfaces seeking escape from their toxic environment. The pain to them is so great, these creatures without any other recourse, crawl from the poisoned soil onto dry, open surfaces exposing their delicate bodies to predators, savage summer heat and lie there dying in the sun. In other words these creatures choose suicide to escape their painful, deadly environment. Birds, insects, and other creatures that normally eat earthworms do not touch them; these animals sense the poisons; only bacteria and ants consume the dead worms. Bacterial decay returns them into raw elements; however, ants cut up the body, haul it to their hills and add the pieces to a compost heap deeply within the hill that grows fungus. Ants eat the fungus. I suppose during composting the poisons become inert not affecting fungus-eating ants. Worm deaths are very high within hours and days right after poison application and then again after the next couple of rains, which wash surface toxins deeper into the soil. After that worms unaffected by initial applications seek escape from their toxic environment to same ends as predecessors: death by suicide.

Healthy organisms first line of defense against contaminated conditions is to cope, and adjust. Absent those, they escape to healthier locations. Be that when responding to any noxious condition whether emotional, physical, chemical, or other. Coping is a healthy reaction to unhealthy surroundings to survive, but when that is not possible seeking escape up to and including suicide is a last desperate defense. Earthworms and most other creatures including humans all have the same built in survival instinct: cope, escape, or die.

A good current example involving humans concerns a government agency named Dept of Veterans Affairs, which consumes a mammoth, taxpayer budget, of hundreds of billions of dollars annually, and the only job it has is caring for US military veterans. It woefully fails doing that. For 9 decades, the agency has remained totally embroiled in a scandalous, growing, national, veteran suicide epidemic & crisis. Veterans via suicide openly protest their lack of care from America and toxic VA. One hundred veterans a day kill selves escaping toxic conditions to which none can cope or adjust. VA claims 70% of them not under its care never seek help; maybe that is for many good reasons considering high suicide numbers among the 30% that are under VA MHC and medical care that do seek it.

Epidemic inside an epidemic are veterans under VA agency care, suiciding directly on VA campuses: in clinics, hospitals, cemeteries, and the campus 'parking lot suicides.' Many of them self-destructed on premises immediately after release from MHC treatments by VA facility staff that using drugs and mental terror induce troubled vets to as one VA, ER doctor screamed verbatim, 'go ahead and kill yourself, I don't care...' So the person did so. Other veterans died by suicide off premises after being turned away or forcibly removed from clinics and hospitals when seeking care; they died by their hand hours or days later. VA publicly claims those veterans are not seeking care. What do you call the aforewritten, chopped liver?!

What is it when veterans openly tell clinic, hospital or other VA staff that s/he is suicidal and VA turns on that person and is berated, psychologically abused, encouraged to suicide, minimized, ridiculed, ignored, told to get out or forcibly, bodily beat up and thrown out then put on a secret 'DO NOT TREAT LIST' or 'SECURITY LIST' as an identified problem, or as a hostile or troublesome patient in a one sided denial of due process in not bothering to get the patient's side? Moreover, should that happen VA authorities and OIG always side with the agency. Dead vets cannot talk to tell their side after a suicide. Like a fatal plane crash always blames pilot error as cause. Neither dead pilots or vets can tell their story. So the living continue their crimes. Meanwhile, US mass media remains silently, willfully, stupid. VA documents its side only, which is always in the agency's favor, then closes the case. Everyone walks away clean but the dead vet.

A lie is a lie even when everyone believes it – Adolf Hitler. VA causes these onsite suicides by irresponsibly prescribing and drugging veterans with dangerous psychotics and other medicines intermixed causing unpredictable, very bad side effects, then before releasing the patient MHC staff in isolated treatment rooms, hospital wards or other private settings mentally and psychologically terrorize the person into suicidal psychosis.

This is a torture tactic developed during the Korean War and was used on POW's. Researchers documented cases of prisoners confined in a straight jacket, locked in a padded room swallowing his tongue and choking to death after drugging and torturing using induced suicide methods. No body is accountable for finding a confined, dead person in the cell. Not sure if this was part of MK-Ultra. When VA is finished and releases a tortured veteran s/he now is in a hysterical, psychotic, breakdown, which is a form of induced insanity, and the person desperately seeks to end their pain using whatever is expedient to do so. In one case, a patient released, notwithstanding family pleas not to do so "because he is a grave danger to self" – died days later when a family member found him dead, hanging by a rope in the garage.

There is reason for all these on and off campus veteran suicides; VA creates and perpetuates the epidemic. The agency tries to sidetrack this into a political issue blaming guns; and anything else that stands still. A gun is only one tool of infinite means to the same end: death. Nice try but no banana, banana. The agency's attempts to briar patch and red herring onus away from it, fails, except to numb nugged Washington DC and the US sheeple. What about the two veterans who set self on fire in a monk style self-immolation one sitting at a VA facility front entrance? When that happens in Russia on Red Square or China on Tiananmen Square protesting the same tyranny, Americans never hear the end of it from mass media. When it happens on front steps of a US government building protesting that same tyranny - silence, before a quick switch to some other cheap sleaze diversion for your viewing enjoyment folks, now a word from our sponsors... 'Choose VA for the benefits you deserve.'

What about the endless suicides existing in plain sight recorded as 'other causes' hiding this country's shame? Ad infinitum, ad nauseam... All aforewritten and more lead to one single point for ongoing veteran suicide epidemic in America:

VA failure in toto. Veterans in seeking to escape a toxic environment are killing selves as an ultimate protest to being subjugated to the worst healthcare system in America. They seek to escape a toxic environment as a fate worse than death same as the earthworms do from groundkeeper poisons spread into their environments.

Privatization works and very well; over 92% of US veterans do not use VA at all. Choosing instead to pay for their healthcare via same methods the rest of this country uses, which means wasting benefits they earned in favor of choosing better while paying double or more for that choice. So why not take the money VA wastes and give it to each vet to buy his or her healthcare and benefits they earned. Return money stolen from Americans back to Americans through veteran spending it in the local economy instead of wasting it on a deadbeat Socialist government agency. VA does more to support people who never served or saw a military uniform than those of us who did.

Only 50-cents of every five VA budget dollars goes to veteran care. Remaining 50 cents walks out the back door in VA employee pockets. US veterans are Americans like the rest of you; they paid more in dues to this country than nearly all American's combined, yet - are treated as dog shit under a doormat, lower class citizens, in being denied the same freedoms to choose medical care and benefits, which, like Social Security - they earned, same as the rest of you. Some trapped veterans manage to cope with this toxic dysfunctional government agency; however, too many more cannot and end the pain taking their lives like those earthworms via suicide as protest of final resort.

Why do American's not hear their screams for help? With existence of myriad, sundry US 'veteran helping' agencies, VSO and charities all claiming to assist them, why are veterans literally suffering and dying in this country from lack of help?! This self-centered motherland of 'me only' Americans have never been troubled when their personal choices infringe upon or even harm the well being of their fellow citizens until consequences boomerang back on them. So maybe the Veterans Affairs dysfunction is really only a reflection of the USA as a whole. Like the dying earthworms were an indication of the whole ecosystem in those toxic areas crippling, sickening and killing other wildlife as well? A phony, hypocritical nation that is all for patriotism, sacrifice and duty so long as someone else pays the price for their free ride and lunch on the gravy trains...War is good business - invest someone else's sons and daughters for our benefit. Who cares right? Until one day, it all returns to you and yours in kind.

This problem is not peculiar to VA. All over America drug & alcohol abuse, suicide and violence are epidemic. Screw Covid, address real problems in this toxic country that are sickening, crippling and killing its people! Suicide is growing. Why? The ecology is telling us through the earthworms. PHYSICAL, CHEMICAL, AND MENTAL POISONING. We are poisoning them, the country, the world, and us. If this does not stop now the earth is not going anywhere, you are assholes. School kids are telling adults that you have created a problem for us in which we cannot grow, thrive and survive into healthy human beings.

Stop it.

Their suicides do not need more quack MHC frauds; they need proactive people with good ideas and how to make them happen in real life practical application.

News Flash: America you just fired someone who tried to do that, Donald Trump. He and his people have the knowledge to successfully do that; however, because he hurt your pussy feelings by telling you the truth, without giving him a chance you fools fired him. Next time you see school custodians washing one of your classmates head and brains off the wall ask self which is more brutal, that or Mr. Trump telling this county how to stop that while offering to you needed movers and shakers capable of making it happen in real life including at school.

We do not need more Socialists and their wasted time forming costly jobs for their friends appointing committees, consensus studies, and political bullshit that scream WE DON'T KNOW HOW TO FIX SHIT, WE ONLY KNOW HOW TO BREAK IT. ALL BROKEN PROMISE AND NOT EVEN HOT AIR COMING OUT OF THEIR STINKING PIE HOLES AFTER THAT. THAT IS THE LOOTERSHIP RULING THIS COUNTRY AND COWARDLY, PUSSY, AMERICANS ALLOW THAT. THAT IS SOCIALISM.

They think that you are stupid and America you give them every reason to believe that.

Forget Washington DC lootership. Lost cause & total FUBAR. States like Texas are moving toward keeping our shit together. Texas had to become a second amendment state, which means if a resident can legally own a gun; s/he can legally carry it without state permission aka permits. Half the state already carried legally and the other half illegally before this change. We did so out of self-defense. We have the best law enforcement in America including State Troopers, Marshals, Texas Rangers and more badass men and women. THEY ARE OUR PEOPLE! Texans. However they cannot be everywhere. Armed nutbags can be and they are everywhere.

An old saying that has saved many a wise Texan's ass that knew this is, 'I'd rather be judged by 12 than carried by 6.'

In a firefight, shoot first; ask questions later if still standing on two legs. That means I will take my chances on a self-defense rap with a jury as first choice any day than with a hole in the ground with me in that coffin just dropped into it by 6 pallbearers.

If that is not a wise Texas saying, it should be one.

Texas legislature looked out for Texans with those laws notwithstanding Socialist Chicken Little howls that passing them would trigger WW3. Armed citizens stop mass murdering nutbags killing just for kicks unarmed daycare kids & mothers tending them, school kids and teachers, church goers, diners, old people, and more innocent folks. Now these two-legged snakes never know if one of those targets will be the return fire that rids their ass null and void forever from the human gene pool. They are bullies. Bullies do want to be hurt, but to only harm innocent, nontoxic people. I learned as a kid, when dealing with a bully and toadies that I am gonna take a punch or two but in doing so take with me all the other side's ass that I can - bite, punch, grab, kick, and anything else in the softest, tenderest, Achilles heel of the other side in teaching it to leave me alone. In a fight all is game - same with War. What hurts the most is my first and only target on a bully. Worked like a charm every time. As I said, in a firefight shoot first and if standing after then ask questions.

A wise man avoids trouble. An ambitious man engages it. I maintain avoidance and choose battles carefully with only one aim in mind once engaged, win them.

As an aside, our Texas and US forefathers and foremothers knew of this kind of bully aka tyranny and what once in power it would and could do to decent, productive, law abiding good people. That is why they risked and lost their lives in bringing to us the covenants between the tyrants that Americans choose to allow lootership over them aka the governors that rule the governed...the governed is you Binky. Covenants do not give what one already possesses at birth. Constitutions are enforceable contracts that protect our inalienable freedoms from the thieves & bullies who would when given an opportunity take them from us including our lives. Americans what so many of you hold in your hands as free and for granted cost dearly in blood, suffering and lives shed by other people to protect.

If you will not care for those freedoms then you do belong as dogshit under jackboots of tyranny.

The US education sows and grows weeds in our public and higher learning schools. It shows. When a school kid goes to school packing as self defense or is so scared when surround s/he blows the last bullet through his head, that is a bully problem of biblical proportions. THAT IS SOCIALISM, FAILING! When kids set out to blow up the whole fucking school because of school bullying by kids and faculty...that is a problem even Moses avoids hiding out with god on the mountaintop. Aforewritten human created problems belong down here to humanity, not to deities that people blame as scapegoats. Humans take their sins and fears, carve them into gods to blame, and worship. Again the light and dark paradigm of this duality is Satan and gods personified as it were fabricated from human fear & frailty. That is America's TOXIC education system destroying our kids. THAT IS SOCIALISM. It is killing minds and bodies of our future and most precious resource along with our old people!!! One is the future the latter is a library burned to the ground in mercifully passing out of here. What a waste...why not America wastes everything else. You will never know what you had until it is gone.

‘We have found the enemy and it is us,’ said Pogo.

US Socialist Society and culture are enemies and our children brutally reflect that sickness.

Another Broward County, Florida, public school student suicided; in sum, a high school student fed up with bullying abuse by faculty and students walked into school, handed his girlfriend a suicide note, pulled out a gun and in front of her and other shocked students put a bullet through his head. Remember earlier when I mentioned custodians cleaning a kid’s head and brains off a high school, hallway & ceiling?

Mr. Trump is mama to the alternative you Americans chose to follow pied piper Socialists. After the student’s death, spiral of silence covered up the crime, Socialist media politicized it as a gun control issue, and school authorities called in bathetic mental health people for public show, to counsel students, more cover up, ad nauseam. Education authorities did everything to secrete their criminal impotence. The only things that local school district did effectively after the tragedy, as a local newspaper showed, was to “hide, spin, deny and threaten anyone who broke silence.”

School district leaders falsely labeled facts about what went wrong as “fake news” [all the while school janitors cleaned a dead kid’s blood and brains off the hallway walls] and put all the blame on [US second amendment] and the National Rifle Association. Anything to spin, hide and cover up the truth that a diseased American culture, socialist society, and school systems are destroying our kids; Socialism demands that it has to be the kids not a dysfunctional system! “... Something is seriously wrong in the lives of our young people...” said Jean Twenge. Yep, they reflect a very sick US social environment and culture. Does any of this sound like typical US government and VA? It is textbook.

Our true, real life, hero enters.

One lone teacher and a truly strong woman with guts spoke out to break the spiral of silence;

The following is core point dialogue between that teacher and truth from a babe's mouth:

“I told my student [the boy's girlfriend] she should go talk to someone, and she replied,” I just tell a different person the same story that they can't handle. I don't want to go again. They're stupid.”

“Don't say that,” I replied. “They're not stupid. They're just not trained.” Said Ms K

“I'm sorry, Ms. K,” my student said. “They're not stupid, they're just shitty.”

Ms. 'K' should have left well enough alone at 'stupid.' The teacher could not stand to see that child's mental and emotional agony, which will haunt her for life.

Ms. K broke the spiral of silence in casting the first stone breaking a glass house of corrupt socialism and one of its corrupt school districts.

She examples a truly courageous and strong woman.

I agree with the child: American socialism and MHC is shitty! You can read the rest of the story at the link above. The story reads straight from annals of a US government, VA scandal and PR-spin. When Socialism digs into a hole instead of throwing down the shovel, it digs more filling its grave.

NAZI is a German acronym for National Socialism; when people condemn NAZI ignorantly they condemn US National Socialism! The only successful aspect of it is that Socialism fails 100% every time and everywhere it is tried; history proves that in toto. Nazism did not die with WW2; it immigrated to USA infiltrated this country and set up corporations like VA and BIA continuing its evil plans.

My brainwashed parents said that Democrats aka Socialists are a party of the poor people. I lived and grew up under US Socialism and it is not good at all. All I ever knew the party to do for poor people was keep us that way and create more poor people. Then enchain us with shame for being poor. Just like the party blamed US Military and Vets as for losing their goddamned unwinnable Vietnam War. Then scapegoated soldiers and veterans via propaganda songs like 'Universal Soldier,' which were red herrings away from the cripples, body bags, and war casualties. Socialist useful idiots cloaked US military - industrialist - complex, US politicians and the financial profiteers hiding from their crimes. Socialism is nothing more than looting, rag picker, Communists dressed in Socialist regalia aka – drag. The whole collectivist system is beyond evil and criminal.

Made in USA...make it great again.... count me out.

To end this is something that gurgled up from a better time in life, the golden 1980's perchance.

Sing like nobody can hear you
Dance like nobody can see you
Love like you will never be ever hurt again.

Ps. Eat more cheeseburgers, be naughty, very naughty - and fuck the VA.

If I am unfortunate enough to be alive for a next time, until next time I am outta here.
